Local lottery supports charities
Fancy a flutter? BH Coastal lottery launches 2-3-19. It’s a weekly draw with 60% going to local charities. John Coulston’s Homeless Charity, Michael House, is one of the good causes.

Letter from Malawi
Victor Lino, the seminarian whom the parish is supporting, writes from St Peter’s major seminary in Zomba. He was interested to hear about our new bell-tower cross, expresses his gratitude and assures us of his prayers. Lynn-Michelle Denton is keeping contact with him if you’d like to learn more about how he’s doing.

Vocations Retreat, Buckfast Abbey 22nd - 24th March
‘Call on me, and I will show you great and wonderful things which you have not known’ (Jeremiah 33:3) A two-day retreat with space to pray and reflect on the call of God and what it might mean for you in the beautiful monastic setting of Buckfast Abbey, near Buckfastleigh, Devon. For those discerning their vocation. An opportunity to meet others who are also wondering about God’s call, and to meet those who have already made the choice to live the religious life in the Church. Dates and times: Friday 22nd March at 4.00pm till Sunday 24th March after lunch. If you feel that the Lord is calling you in some way - as a priest, or as a brother, or you are not too sure - get in touch with me, Fr. Ralph Candy, Vocations Director, Diocese of Plymouth. More at vocation@prcdtr.org.uk or 01803 557518

Head-teacher Vacancies
Plymouth Cast have vacancies for 4 Headteachers in Devon Schools. If you would like to find out more, contact louise.adams@plymouthcast.org.uk or see the poster in the Narthex.

Five Friends to Faith?
Cardinal Vincent Nichols, the Archbishop of Westminster is urging every Catholic to pray that five people they know might become Christians. In a joint letter with the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby and other church leaders, Cardinal Nichols said: “In particular, can we encourage you to join with us in praying for five particular individuals to make the best decision anyone can ever make in their lives – to become followers of Jesus Christ, or to pray that in your community, in very specific ways, the love of Christ might be seen and heard so that there will be many whose lives are touch by the grace of God?”

A new saint for England: Bl John Henry Newman is to be canonised

I well remember the moment in Cofton Park, Birmingham, September 2010 when a trumpet fanfare started Cardinal Newman’s hymn “Praise to the Holiest”. (We’d travelled by coach from West Cornwall all through the night in pouring rain). Almost miraculously the rain stopped and the clouds parted as Pope Benedict arrived to beatify John Henry Newman. Everyone’s banners were lifted high into the air.

On Tuesday Pope Francis authorised the Congregation for the Causes of Saints to issue a decree attributing a miracle to his intercession. The move clears the final hurdle in the cause of Bl. John Henry Newman’s Cause for canonisation. A full investigation of the healing of a pregnant woman in Chicago found it to be medically inexplicable. She had been praying to Blessed John Henry Newman. No date has been announced as yet, but it is likely to be later this year.

In his homily at the Beatification in 2010, Pope Benedict said:

“His insights into the relationship between faith and reason, into the vital place of revealed religion in civilized society, and into the need for a broadly-based and wide-ranging approach to education were not only of profound importance for Victorian England, but continue today to inspire and enlighten many all over the world... He also lived out that profoundly human vision of priestly ministry in his devoted care for the people of Birmingham during the years that he spent at the Oratory he founded, visiting the sick and the poor, comforting the bereaved, caring for those in prison.”
