The Exaltation of the Holy Cross on Monday

This feast-day shines out, reminding us that the gift of the Cross is our extraordinary sign of hope. What seems miserable defeat can instead become a doorway to heaven; with Jesus no suffering cannot be transformed into a means of life-giving grace.

Confirmations in Poole

The bishop is now coming to give the sacrament of Confirmation to our young people of Poole on 1st November at St Mary's Church. If there are any adults in our two parishes who have not been confirmed, please do contact Fr Chris as soon as possible.

Parish pilgrimage to Medjugorje postponed

Despite our hopes that it would somehow carry on, we've had to postpone our first ever diocesan pilgrimage with Bishop Mark to this Marian shrine planned for the end of October. The tour operator, Marian Pilgrimages, have contacted all those who booked and are holding the price; we are looking to go instead next year which happens to be the 40th anniversary since the apparitions of Our Lady are alleged to have begun.

Virus measures

Just a reminder that if we are feeling unwell to refrain from coming to mass; if we do test positive to inform the parish office (personal details will be kept strictly confidential).

Traditional Latin Mass (EF Masses)

Celebrated at The Church of St. Thomas More, Exton Road, Iford each Sunday at 4pm. Priests from St. Joseph's Church, Portsmouth undertake the journey to offer the Mass. All welcome. Also at the Bournemouth Oratory, Sacred Heart Church, every first Friday of the month at 6pm.

A message of thanks

On behalf of Bill Davey, Dolores wishes to thank his numerous friends from Our Lady of Fatima & St Joseph's, for all their prayers and good wishes sent through her. My father has had to battle through a few health issues this last year and could not have done so without your unstinting love and support. We pray for you all in return and ask God to bless you and keep you safe.

Connor Corbin

Sue and the rest of the Corbin family at David Little's Poole Athletics Club, sincerely thank you for all your prayers for young Connor for the last many months. (NB This is not the Corbin family of Our Lady of Fatima parish). Southampton Hospital signed him off from the Cancer Ward yesterday and he rang the bell! We look forward to welcoming him back to Ashdown.
