A new Catholic youth worker for Poole

We all want our young people to find Jesus and to grow in their faith as Catholics...

Following an interview process involving three great candidates, I'm delighted to announce that we have appointed Will Hince as youth worker for Poole (our two parishes will, with St Mary's parish, be funding this post). He will be known to many locally as he grew up in St Mary's parish where he and his wife Maria and four children are parishioners. He has wide-ranging experience in youth work in different parts of the country including:

- Co-ordinating youth ministry across Portsmouth Diocese.
- Co-ordinating youth ministry across the Bournemouth and Avon Stour Pastoral Areas.
- Pioneering Beyond the Wild outdoor retreats for young people, for which Bishop Mark is patron.
- Working on full-time evangelisation teams running retreats, parish missions, and doing outreach in schools.
- Working in a Catholic retreat centre.
- Working as a school lay chaplain.

He is a man of vision and deep faith. I'm sure you'll all have chance to meet him at Sunday mass in due course. Please pray for him as he takes up his post in October.
