Farewell to St John's Seminary, Wonersh

Along with many priests in our diocese, Fr Chris trained for the priesthood at St John's. It was opened in 1891 in the village of Wonersh, just outside Guildford, in the beautiful Surrey countryside - for seminarians from across the South of England. Falling numbers led to its closure this summer. (Ushaw Seminary near Durham closed in 2011). It is undoubtedly a sad day and a call for more prayer for vocations. Remaining seminaries for English students are: Oscott, Birmingham; Allen Hall, London and the Beda and Venerable English College, both in Rome. Past students have been invited to visit this Friday.

Pastoral Letter this weekend and 'Synodal Journey'

Bishop Mark will explain the Holy Father's call for a two-year Synodal process for the world-wide Church.

Rosary before Mass at Our Lady of Fatima

Please join us to pray the Rosary at 8am every Sunday during October.

St Joseph quote of the week

'Make St Joseph responsible for the protection of your person, he who saved the life of the Saviour'.

Blessed William Chaminade.
