Magazines for St. Ann's Hospital patients

Many thanks to all of you who have donated magazines. We have enough for now, but will let you know when more are needed.

Sea Sunday

Today is Sea Sunday, when the church prays for all those who live and work at Sea. Today's second collection is for Stella Maris (Apostleship of the Sea), the Catholic Church's official maritime welfare agency. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue its work. Please be as generous as you can. You can find out more by visiting:

Lifting of restrictions

We are still waiting diocesan directives following the Prime Minister's announcement on Monday. But we're preparing to move our pews back to pre-lockdown positions etc for Sunday 24th July.

Marriages in the parish

Over the past year (all the way through the lockdowns) we have been preparing five couples to get married: two couples to be married in St Joseph's, one in another church and two in Poland. It's a shame that you can't all meet them with their sense of hope and joy. Please do say a prayer for them.

Parish gift to Andrew

Here is the gift that our two parishes gave Andrew Marlborough for his ordination. It's an antique silver pyx to take Jesus in Holy Communion to the sick. We were also able to present Andrew with a cheque for £1000 from your generous donations! He was very touched and extremely grateful to you all.

Church Flowers at St. Joseph's

We are looking for new members to join the 'Flower Arranging Team'. You don't have to have any experience - just an interest in flowers, be able to give a little time and are keen to learn – we can help with everything else! If you want to find out more, please contact Jane at the office who will pass on your details to me. Cary Wicks – Co-ordinator.

Year of St Joseph: quote of the week

'To be faithful as humble collaborators with the divine plan over our lives, we need, along with the protection of the Virgin Mary, that of St Joseph, a most powerful intercessor.' St Pope John XXIII
