A Message from Fr Andrew

'Dear parishioners, I have come to see that I'm called to join a religious community to continue living out my priesthood. In June I will be leaving St Joseph's to make an initial time of discernment with the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest. I want to thank all of you for your support. I will keep you very much in my heart, and so in my prayers'. Fr Andrew.

Fr Chris adds: 'It doesn't need saying that this news will affect us all deeply. Fr Andrew has been outstanding in his priestly witness here. So we entrust him to Our good Lord for the good of the wider church. Please God he will come back to our diocese one day'.

Prayers for our twenty First Communicants

We entrust them and their families to the loving care of Our Lady of Fatima and St Joseph. We pray also for our wonderful catechists too.
