Trinity Sunday

It's our annual recognition that God wants us to know him as he really is. What's more, he invites us to boldly go beyond ourselves into his own eternal life - that constant dynamism of relationship between Father, Son and Spirit.

Corpus Christi

As the Church now encourages, there will be a short procession (weather allowing) after the 8.30am and 10.30am mass next Sunday. Holiday-makers remark on the colourful and joyful processions that happen in Spain and other countries and there's no doubt that they are starting to come back in England. They strengthen our faith and can give a positive witness. And we love them!

Andrew Marlborough's first appointment

It has just been announced that after his ordination Andrew will be moving to Falmouth parish in west Cornwall to be assistant priest. We wish him well.

Monthly Indian Mass at St Joseph's

Mass in the Syro-Malabar rite will be moving from Our Lady of Fatima to St Joseph's for 4pm on the third Sunday of each month.

St. Joseph's Platinum Jubilee Celebrations

Many thanks to all who helped with our street party in St Joseph's car-park on Sunday. It was great fun and the residents from Archway Road were grateful that we'd organised it. After lunch the rain moved us into the hall for a toast to her majesty with the national anthem.

Have you thought of becoming a governor? Would you like to support St Joseph's primary school?

We are looking for (practising Catholic) foundation governors who can support the faith ethos of the school. If you are interested, please speak to Fr Chris or Jane in the parish office.
