A new statue of St Joseph

The present statue in St Joseph's sanctuary is only on loan and also badly broken. People have pointed out that the wooden statue in the side-chapel just doesn't cut the mustard on a devotional level. The finance committee has agreed to a plan to have a statue sculpted especially for our church. Fr Andrew has tracked down the Italian sculptor of the new St Joseph statue in the shrine church of Medjugorje. There are images of this on the parish website.

St Joseph has come into more prominence in our day. We need his fatherly presence and intercession. So we have approached the sculptor to consider a statue of St Joseph as patron of the universal Church. As such, whilst holding the Christ-child, he would also cradle a model Galilean fishing boat in his other arm; who knows? St Joseph might even have created one of these in his workshop. The boat is sometimes used as a symbol of the Catholic Church, but it would also link us with Poole with our connection to the sea.

If you are interested in this project and would like to contribute, please contact us.
