The Big Jubilee Lunch 5th June at St Joseph's?

Street Parties and Big Lunches are being planned across the nation to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee and bring local people together. It has been suggested that our parishes might host one in St Joseph's carpark. It could be a lovely event and in theory simple to organise. But we'd need a group of people from both our parishes to help with this. Please call the office if you'd like to help us plan the celebration of this historic event.

A September pilgrimage to Walsingham

For two years running our proposed pilgrimage to Medjugorje has had to be cancelled because of Covid. But several have asked about a pilgrimage instead to our own national shrine. Elizabeth Weight has cleverly managed to book Dowry house, the nice new retreat centre, for five days at the end of September (for the feast of Our Lady of Walsingham: 24th September). We're taking names in the office. More details to follow.

'UK prays' Initiative www.ukprays.org

Here's a new simple, peaceful form of public Christian witness taking place throughout the UK.

Parishioners from various local parishes have started joining together to pray the rosary at Bournemouth Cenotaph, Bournemouth Central Gardens, (close to the Town Hall), BH2 5RP, every Wednesday at 6:30 PM. Perhaps we can swell the numbers. This sort of thing can bear positive fruit...

Safeguarding training day 10am – 4pm Sat 19th Feb

Robert Kingdon from the diocese is coming to lead a regular training day in St Joseph's Hall. If you have a role that requires a DBS check, this is an opportunity for an update.
