'Forty Hours' at St Joseph's 29th April – 1st May

The Knights of St Columba have taken up the suggestion of a parishioner to organise a 'forty hours' in our parish. What is a 'forty hours'? It's a time of continuous adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament that gradually developed over the past thousand years (in honour of the forty hours Jesus' body was laid in the tomb). It was especially encouraged to pray for peace when Europe was often besieged by war.

We plan to start our forty hours on Friday 29th April and continue till 10.30am Mass on Sunday 1st May.

We'll need at least two people to sign up for each hour during that time (nights included!). It's a big ask, but the rewards are great; so many people experience tremendous help from God in all their troubles through this time of silent adoration.
