The joy Our Lady can bring us

As 15th August falls on a Sunday this year, we celebrate the Assumption of Our Lady at Sunday Mass. As the last of the Four Marian Dogmas, it marks the glorious end of Our Lady's life (although not the end of her mission). Mary was so associated with the New Adam that she has shared already in his bodily resurrection. It is something that Christians have long taken as an extra sign of joyful hope. We might not do fireworks and a public holiday here in England, but all-the-same the feast lifts us out of our covid-weary times. Whilst we get so many things wrong as human beings, here is human being that got it right on behalf of us all and has led the way to eternal joy - and that can never, ever be taken away.

First Holy Communions and Confirmations

Please contact the office as soon as possible, if you have not already done so. We will be contacting parents over the next couple of weeks.
