Supporting your parish by standing order

This is the simplest way to make your offering. Please contact the office for more details You can also make your weekly offerings via www.catholicparkstone.org or by using the contactless payment system, in church. If you can Gift Aid, we can give you a form. Please contact the office. Thank you for your generosity.

Second Collection: This weekend. White Flower Appeal 2022 for the Society of the Protection of Unborn Children. SPUC is currently campaigning to protect Pro-life speech. Pro-life witness is being restricted now more than ever; we must be able to speak freely to protect unborn babies. Please be as generous as you can to help SPUC defend unborn babies and their mothers from this new attack. Cheques payable to SPUC please.

Found in St. Joseph's Church

A gold ring. Please contact the office if you think it may be yours.

The Wedding at Cana : a picture with hidden details

St John has crafted this passage like one of those renaissance paintings with many different meanings.

Lots of the best wine: Old Testament prophecies said the Messiah would arrive with plenty of good wine. Jesus produces over 1000 bottles-worth by today's standards: here's the Messiah!

'My hour has not yet come': But this miracle does point ahead to the holy eucharist, to the saving 'hour' of Jesus' last supper and death.

The bride and groom aren't named: Instead Jesus and his mother ("Woman") are shown to be at the heart of God's covenant plan.

'Do whatever he tells you': Mary guides us all.

We have been receiving lots of feedback from parish groups on our Synodal journey but would love to hear more from those who may not be able to or wish to participate in a group. There is a short online survey which can be completed anonymously <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/9MVCQ7M>.

Please share this link with family and friends.

If you want to keep in touch with the Synodal Journey, newsletter updates can be found on our diocesan website.
