Toilets in the Narthex at St. Joseph's

The toilets in the Narthex are always open during Mass. Parishioners are asked not to use the loo in the sacristy; this is for those in the sacristy only. Thank you.

Stay Awake 2023: Saturday 11th March 2023

All Saints Academy Weymouth. More details to follow.

Unexpected visitors to St Joseph's car-park

Our Security cameras reveal the antics of a couple of foxes each night. It's great to witness their playfulness and curiosity so close to us whilst we are all sleep.

Our next confirmations reunion: Fri 21st Oct 5.30pm

BCP Council website has just published a 'public places protection order' in Ophir Road (in the vicinity of the abortion provider)

It is not permitted to 'audibly pray, recite scripture, genuflect, sprinkle holy water on the ground or cross' oneself in this area between 7am and 7pm.

How long before it's seen as 'harassment' to pray in local churches for the protection of unborn babies?

The priest's Mass intentions

When we make an offering to the priest, it is so that he can pray a requested intention at mass. These intentions are printed in the newsletter and published on the website. Fr Chris has long announced these at the start of mass.

However, it has been pointed out that this is not good practice. It's not the Mass per se that is being offered for the priest's intention; we should all be encouraged to bring our own intentions to the mass at the same time.

Save the Dates! Events at St. Joseph's Hall
