A day of hope and grace

Andrew's ordination last Saturday was just beautiful and a real tonic to us all. You can watch it all on youtube (link on the parish website.) Andrew's first mass at St Joseph's will be this Sunday at 10.30am. OLF parishioners might like to wait until Fr Andrew comes to celebrate a first mass at Our Lady of Fatima; he can then also give his first blessing; he has kindly offered to look after the parishes whilst Fr Chris is away. We will present the chalice to Andrew (that was purchased from all your contributions) after mass on Sunday; Andrew can take it over to OLF later.

Glastonbury pilgrimage last Sunday

Under a fierce sun, the rosary procession wound through the abbey ruins and the ancient high street to the outdoor mass celebrated by the bishop. Sr Vincy commented on how joyous it was to see such a colourful witness of English Catholicism. The official photos can be seen via the parish website.

A wonderful silver jubilee celebration.

A big thank you to all of you for making last Tuesday such a joyous commemoration. Thank you also for the lovely cards and gifts. I still haven't got round to ordering the statue of St Joseph...

Marking Hugh Fogarty's many years of service

After around twenty years as Chair of Governors for St Joseph's School, Hugh Fogarty is stepping down. This is a remarkable stint! We are indebted to him for all he has done at the rudder to help keep the school afloat and in the right direction through many challenges. The Mass intention for the end of term mass on Friday will be for him and his family.

Pilgrimage to Walsingham

If you are going to Walsingham, Elizabeth Weight will be contacting you over the next few weeks, to request payment for your accommodation. Cheques payable to PRCDTR Branksome please.
