Playing St Padre Pio changes a high-profile actor

Padre Pio the movie received an ovation after its premiere at the Venice Film Festival this month. It stars the Hollywood actor Shia LaBeouf, who previously made headlines for less than saintly behaviour. In August, however, Bishop Robert Barron interviewed him following his decision to become a Catholic after he stayed with a community of capuchin friars during filming. He articulates his reasons, describing attending Latin Mass as “being let in on something that is very special,”

Reunion for this year's Confirmation candidates
