Reaching out with our faith in these times

The website of the bishops of England and Wales (www.cbcew.org.uk) has a reflection called The Day of the Lord encouraging Catholics to place Sunday Mass at the heart of their post-pandemic lives.

The website also features a video message from our own bishop Mark O'Toole who is asking us to pray the upcoming novena before Pentecost in these strange times; we need a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit as we try to spread our Catholic faith to those close to us.

Singing at Mass

We are still waiting news of when the ban on communal singing is to be lifted, but it is now possible for a group of up to three people (socially distanced) to sing at Mass.

Perhaps this is a fresh opportunity for those of you with vocal talents to pluck up courage and come forward. Don't be shy: your parish needs you...

Year of St Joseph: quote of the week

'At the workbench where St Joseph plied his trade together with Jesus, Joseph brought human work closer to the mystery of the Redemption'.

St John Paul II

A new young priest for our diocese

We have the great news that the bishop is to ordain deacon Albert Lawes on Friday 25th June in Plymouth cathedral. Please pray for Albert and his family.

(Albert has a brother who is a priest in Clifton Diocese and another brother training for the priesthood in Australia).

First Communion Celebration: fourth attempt!

We are scheduling the Mass for last year's First Communion children on Saturday 26th June: ie as soon as public celebrations are finally allowed.

Opening up of care homes etc...

Priests are now finally allowed to go into homes (usually after taking the dreaded 'lateral flow tests'). If you know someone who would appreciate a visit please contact the office.

The feast of St Rita of Cascia

Will be celebrated at St Rita's Centre, Honiton, Devon on Saturday 22nd May with Mass at 12 noon followed by the blessing and distribution of roses for the sick. Bookings only at www.stritascentre.org or by telephone 01404 42635.
