Our Lady's apparitions in Hrushiv, Ukraine

Two weeks before the First World War in 1914 Our Lady appeared to 22 people to warn that the Ukraine would suffer terribly for 80 years.

Between 26th April and 15th August 1987 it is claimed that up to 500,000 people (including KGB agents) saw the apparitions of Our Lady above the Church. She came with a consoling message that freedom would soon be granted and to emphasize the particular power of the rosary for future peace in the face of Russia's threats. Ukraine was the first nation to be dedicated to Our Lady in 1037.

Not letting Lent sneak up unannounced...

Ash Wednesday (March 2nd) and Easter (April 17th) are quite late this year, but Lent still has a habit of jumping up without a by-your-leave. It's good to put it in on the old spiritual radar so we can we make full use of it when it arrives.

Solemnity of St Walburga Friday 25th February

Every church in Plymouth diocese honours St Walburga on 25th February; she left Wimborne with two brothers in the eighth century to help her uncle St Boniface evangelise Germany. As St Walburga is our patron, we are the only church that celebrates a solemnity – and a Friday on which we can eat meat! We'll have the relic of St Walburga at Mass. All are welcome afterwards for tea and cake in the hall.
