Supporting your parish by standing order

This is the simplest way to make your offering. Please contact the office for more details. You can also make your weekly offerings via www.catholicparkstone.org or by using the contactless payment system, in church. If you can Gift Aid, we can give you a form. Please contact the office. Thank you for your generosity.

Poole Foodbank

Although we no longer collect donations of food, the foodbank is very grateful for our financial help. Please put your donation, however small, in an envelope marked Foodbank and put it in the collection or through the presbytery letterbox. Cheques payable to Faithworks Wessex please.

Missio Red Boxes

Please bring your box to the office or leave it with Jane after Mass at OLF, for counting. The spring edition of the Mission today magazine is now available in the church.

The Meaning of the Annunciation

In the Lord of the Rings, the power of evil is vanquished when the ring is finally destroyed on 25th March. We too celebrate the start of the vanquishing of darkness on this day. But the Angel's announcement means even more to us: it marks the culmination of God's plan for the cosmos. From its very beginning the universe has been preparing for God to enter his creation as someone we can see and touch and relate to. It is the way God will share his divine life with us. And it all hinges on the super-heroic co-operation of this young woman, Mary.

Paul Martin RIP

Paul died during lockdown; his family are now able to celebrate his funeral mass in Our Lady of Fatima church - at 12 noon on Saturday 26th March. Please remember them in your prayers.

A parish gift for Andrew Marlborough

Although the date for Andrew's ordination has not yet been set publicly, it is likely to be on a Saturday in July (in Plymouth Cathedral). It is a tradition that the home parish of a seminarian provides a gift to support him in his priesthood – usually a chalice or chasuble. It seemed wise to discuss this with Andrew; he was of course touched by the offer and admitted he would greatly appreciate the gift of a chalice. This would be a lasting reminder of St Joseph's parish and special way of expressing our support.

If you would like to give towards this, please put your gift in an envelope marked 'Andrew's gift'.

Support for Ukraine

Plymouth Diocese website now has a page about how people can respond to the crisis in Ukraine. www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk/ukrainecrisis/.

It also has links to the new Homes for Ukraine hosting scheme and will be updated regularly as more information becomes available.

'Forty Hours' at St Joseph's 29th April – 1st May

The Knights of St Columba have taken up the suggestion of a parishioner to organise a 'forty hours' in our parish. Further details and a sign-up sheet to follow.

Easter Cards at St. Joseph's

A small selection of Easter cards will be available in the hall after Mass on Sunday. Cash only please.

Coffee after Sunday Mass at both churches

Please join us for coffee after Sunday Mass. If you are new to the parish, this is a good way to meet other parishioners.

A timely reminder

British Summertime begins next weekend. The clocks go forward by one hour.
