Masses this weekend. Please see him after Mass if you would like a Red box or contact the office.

Praying for the Holy Spirit

During these nine days between Ascension and Pentecost, we are in spirit with Our Lady and the apostles awaiting the fulfilment of Our Lord's promise.
Never before has our world so needed the Holy Spirit!
He is our light, our warmth, our hope, our joy, our healing, our strength and our consolation. Let's pray!

(By-the-way, did some of you forget that last Thursday was a holy day of obligation? Our numbers at mass were about half our Sunday Mass attendance).

Adrian Pelosi RIP

Please remember Adrian, his family and friends in your prayers. His funeral Mass will be at 11am on Thursday 25th May at Our Lady of Fatima.

Our dedicated First Communion catechists

Once again we say thank you to our team of parishioners and Sisters; these last two Saturdays are the fruit of seven months of assiduous weekly preparation of our thirty one first Communion children. (Estelle Steele has been doing this for thirty years.) God bless you all.

Vocations appeal at the Saturday vigil mass

We welcome Fr Paul Keys, parish priest of St Catherine's Wimborne (and formerly at Our Lady of Fatima). He will be swapping with Fr James Barber to celebrate the Vigil mass at St Joseph's and preach - to encourage us all in praying for more vocations.
