First Holy Communion and Confirmation cards

Tony will be selling cards and gifts outside St. Joseph's Church after Sunday Mass or, if the weather is unkind, in the hall. Cash only please.

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday

A reminder of Jesus' words to St Faustina in 1936:

'On that day (Divine Mercy Sunday) the very depths of my tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of my mercy. The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me even though its sins be as scarlet. ...It is my desire that my mercy be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the fount of my mercy....'

'Before I come as a just judge, I first open wide the door of my mercy. He who refuses to pass through the door of my mercy must pass through the door of my justice.'

Forty hours needs you!

At the end of this week the Knights of St Columba are organising 40 hours of adoration at St Joseph's Church. It will start with a 6.30pm mass on Friday 29th and run through continuously until Sunday 10.30am Mass.

This is a powerful time to pray. Here we can bring our worries and the needs of our families and friends; we can pray for the suffering people of the Ukraine, the sick people we know, the pro-life cause, our two parishes and our country. But above all it is a time just to adore Jesus and to express our gratitude and love to him.

There is a sheet where you can sign up for an hour (at least). Teas and snacks in the hall during the night.

Rosary at Our Lady of Fatima

We will be praying the Rosary every Sunday morning at 8am during May. Please join us.

Deacon Andrew's Ordination to the Priesthood

Andrew will be ordained at Plymouth Cathedral on Saturday 9th July by Bishop Mark. We are organising a coach. To book a seat, please call the office or speak with Jane after Mass.

Walsingham Pilgrimage

We require the subsidised coach fare of £70 by Monday 9th May. Cheques to PRCDTR Branksome, or cash in an envelope marked Walsingham Coach Fare clearly marked with your name. Please bring your envelope to the office, or hand to Jane after Mass.
