Your parish needs you...

Sometimes parish life can seem a bit disconnected from the call of Jesus in the Gospels. Yet in God's providence, from the Acts of the Apostles to today, the parish is definitely the ordinary place where Jesus chooses to reach out in everyday life. He needs our faith, our hearts, our hands and our feet to keep his Church alive. Parishes always rely on a few trusted and dedicated members to keep going. The trouble is that often others can be unwittingly prevented from taking a much-needed part too.

Our two parishes always need more readers, catechists, musicians and singers, flower arrangers, cleaners, and people to visit the sick. We could also do with more people to take on fund-raising and social events.

Is your faith strong enough for you to say: "here's how I might be able to help"?

CWL meet on Monday 6th February at 7:30pm

In St. Joseph's Hall. An experienced police officer will be giving a talk. All parishioners welcome.
