A light to enlighten all peoples.

The Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple has been an important feast for us in England for so many centuries. People have long brought candles to their churches to be blessed for the year ahead.

Holy Simeon and Anna are full of joy that this baby has been brought to them in the great Temple in Jerusalem. They celebrate him as the Light of the Nations, the long-awaited Messiah; he will replace the Temple worship by his own presence worshipped throughout the world.

It is a bitter-sweet moment; Mary and Joseph are warned that Jesus will be rejected and that Mary will suffer with him. St Pope John Paul II called her the 'Co-redemptrix'. Although only human, through her closeness to her divine son Mary leads us to the power of the Cross where our love as baptised disciples can radiate the supernatural light of Jesus.

St Vincent de Paul Christmas Appeal: Sudan Babies

Thanks to the generosity and kindness of the people of our two parishes, a total of £950 was collected. This will feed nineteen Babies for a year. Thank you so much from your SVP. God bless you all.

Foundation Governor for St Joseph's School
