Easter at our two Parishes

All places at the Easter Vigil Mass and both Sunday morning Masses are now fully booked.

Malcolm has kindly offered to live-screen all the Holy week and Easter Masses from both our churches.

A Happy Easter to everyone

May the light of the resurrection shine into the lockdown darkness of your lives and fill you with new hope, joy and peace.

Great news: Andrew is to be ordained here in June!

Our seminarian, Andrew Marlborough, has some great news. His ordination as a deacon (en route to priesthood), has been approved and will be at St Joseph's on Saturday 19th June at 12 noon. It is a great blessing for this to be in the parish, especially in this year of St Joseph. More details will follow.

Congratulations!

We warmly welcome Richard who is to be baptised on Wednesday and Jan who is to be received into full communion on Thursday. May Jesus give them both great peace and joy as they join the Church and receive his grace; may their families too receive a great blessing.

A hearty vote of gratitude

During the past lockdown and in fact all through the past year, our two churches have been kept open, when many have shut, by the courageous faith and seemingly tireless dedication of just a few parishioners (including our Sisters). They have beavered away stewarding, sanitising and overseeing the many practical challenges that have arisen behind-the-scenes. We all owe them a great debt of gratitude. Fr Chris is offering the Easter Sunday morning mass for them. Our gratitude also goes to all who have played a part in our parishes over the past year: our treasurers, safeguarding rep, First Communion catechists, church cleaners, sacristans, altar servers, organists, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, flower arrangers, welcomers, counters, members of the finance committees, our parish secretary and our two dear Sisters. These are some of the more obvious roles. There are also many of you who have helped – and prayed for - others through lockdown on behalf of the parish.

Year of St Joseph: quote of the week

'If the resurrection of Christ, as we read in the Gospel of Matthew, caused the bodies of certain saints to rise and appear to many, isn't it likely that St Joseph shared in this privilege, since he died before Christ?'
St George Preca
