We pray for the Synod in Rome 4th – 29th October

The Pope has called 464 clergy and lay people to Rome for this unprecedented exercise in listening.
Give the ambiguous briefings and controversies surrounding this consultation, we pray to our own St John Henry Newman (feast day tomorrow) for the 'kindly light' of truth 'amid the encircling gloom' to guide the church faithfully on.

Update on the building works at St Joseph's

The new window for St Joseph's Porch will be installed

We are then looking at replacing the defective lighting in the church and then hope to redecorate.

Toilets at our two parishes

Due to damage and blockages in our new toilets, we must ask parents to always supervise their children.
Please leave the toilet as you would wish to find it.
