Prayers for our Confirmation youngsters

Our nineteen candidates have been attending classes in the church hall every Friday over the past 6 months.
We have used the American, Ascension Press course 'Chosen' once again; it has dynamic presenters who articulate our faith powerfully.

To say it is not easy growing up in today's culture is an understatement. Yet our teenagers have been very faithful and open to learning. May the Holy Spirit come down powerfully on each of them with his gifts to strengthen them in these difficult times.

National Eucharistic Congress Sat 14th Sept

Six years ago, our first Eucharistic Congress at Liverpool was a resounding success with talks by Bishop Robert Baron and an ebullient procession through the streets of Liverpool (in pouring rain). This year's one-day Congress will take place at Oscott College in Birmingham and looks to be another time of grace for our national Catholic Church. We have been allotted a certain number of spaces. If you are interested in going please email the parish office.
More on our parish website.

Come and say hello to our Mini Vinnies

Did you know that we have a thriving youth section of the St Vincent de Paul at St Joseph's School?

The Mini Vinnies are coming to join us for 10am Mass at Our Lady of Fatima this Tuesday (11th June) and to meet parishioners afterwards. If you will be at the Mass, please come and say hello; it's a great opportunity to strengthen the parish links with our lovely school.
