A joyful welcome to Daniel Eziukwu

Daniel married his Catholic fiancée Anna in Poland during the summer. He decided he wanted to join the Catholic Church himself and has been receiving instruction; we have permission to receive him into the Church at the 10.30am Mass this Sunday. May our good Lord give him and Anna joy and many blessings in the faith.

Welcoming our new deanery Caritas worker

My name is Teresa Maguire and I am the new Caritas Development worker for Dorset. My role is to support the great work of Catholic social action underway in our charities, schools, and parishes within the Dorset Deanery.
My aim is to work in partnership with you to help those in need in our communities. I will endeavour to support and create opportunities for people from all walks of life to engage with new or established groups or projects. Please contact me at teresa.maguire@prcdtr.org.uk.

Fr Chris has invited Teresa to the parish; please come and meet her in the presbytery on Wednesday 6th Dec at 4pm.

Praising God with a new Mass setting for our parishes

We have been singing the 'Belmont Mass' setting on Sundays for many years now, so we're going to try learning a different one; the St Anne's Mass (composed by Sir James Macmillan). It will be familiar if we go to mass elsewhere as it is used by many parishes now, including our cathedral. It's tuneful and simple to sing.

Breakfast at OLF – This Sunday after Mass

Join us for bacon or sausage baps, tea, or coffee to raise
